NEW YORK, July 20.—Only on one day since the beginning of the epidemic of infantile paralysis on June 28, have more fatalities from the disease occurred than in the last 24 hours. During this period the plague killed 31 children and there were 119 new cases reported in the five boroughs of New York City.

The latest figures show that the mortality rate still is slightly less than 20 per cent. Since the beginning of the epidemic there have been 487 deaths and 2,464 cases.

Although the number of deaths from the disease increased there were fewer new cases reported.

"The decreases noted in the new cases reported today is encouraging," said Health Commissioner Emerson today. "If this decrease should continue for another week we should feel justified in saying that the epidemic is being controlled."

There were 13 surgeons stationed at railroads and ferries today to examine interstate travelers. The force soon will be increased to cover steamship lines for New England and Atlantic Coast points, it was said.

Reports today from cities and towns surrounding New York show that local health authorities are not inclined to accept the health certificates given to children who leave this city as adequate protection against the spread of infantile paralysis. The State Health Department has taken this ground and has recommended that all children from New York City under 15 years of age arriving in up-State communities be kept under observation for two weeks. The total number of cases of the disease in New York State outside of this city is officially reported today as 171.

The Federal Public Health Service is now at work with the necessary men and money and will wage a fight against the spread of the disease into other states, Dr. Charles E. Banks, senior surgeon in charge of the Government operations in this city, declared.

One of the new cases was found yesterday in an exclusive section in Fifth avenue.

"No Federal quarantine has been established and we don't believe there is likely to be," said Dr. Banks. "We expect to control the epidemic so well it will not be necessary."

National Paralysis Epidemic Believed to Be Unlikely.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Public Health Service today declared that a national epidemic of infantile paralysis is over. State Boards of Health throughout the country have reported themselves able to combat any appearance of the disease.

MAN LEAPS FROM SECOND STORY AND ESCAPES POLICE

Prisoner at Headquarters Flees From Bertillon Room Suspected of Trying to Sell Stolen Suit.

A man who had given his name as Pedro Beza, who was being manacled in the Bertillon room at police headquarters, shortly before noon today, broke away and leaped through the second-story window, cleared a 10-foot airway and landed on the lawn at the north of the building.

When he struck the ground he sprang up, apparently uninjured, and fled through an alley to Walnut street and turned east. Detectives pursued in an automobile, but did not recapture him.

The man was arrested this morning at a pawnshop where he was trying to dispose of a suit of clothes, believed to have been stolen. He told the police he was a Spaniard, and gave his age as 24 years.

KAROLYI EXPLAINS ATTITUDE

Hungary Will Continue to Fight, Leader Says.

BERLIN, July 20, by wireless to Sayville.—Count Michael Karolyi, member of the Hungarian Lower House of Parliament, has been made president of a new independent party. In his opening speech, according to the Overseas News Agency, he said:

"In order to avoid misunderstandings it is necessary to emphasize the fact that there are no differences of opinion in Hungary as to our sole duty, which is to defend the country without discussing reasons, inasmuch as it was attacked by the enemy."

It was reported from Budapest on July 18 that Count Karolyi has resigned the presidency of the Hungarian independent party and would form a new party, which would demand immediate peace between Hungary and its enemies, with or without the consent of Germany and Austria.

The official statement from the French
War Office says:

"On both sides of the Somme our infantry this morning attacked German positions and gained notable advances.
North of the Somme we captured enemy trenches from Mamelon-Hardecourt as far as the river and carried our line clear to the east of Hardecourt along the railroad to the narrow road which runs from Comblet to Clerly.

"South of the Somme, between Barleux and Soyecourt, all the first line of enemy trenches fell into our hands.
"In the Champagne we penetrated into a German trench to the north of Auberv-iva.

"Upon the left bank of the Meuse, bombardment continued in the regions of Avocourt and Chateaufort, together with hand grenade fighting on the slopes northeast of Hill 304. On the right bank we made progress during the night west of the Thiamont Works. To the south of Fleury a powerful fighting work continued in which several trenches were captured and 60 prisoners taken.

British Line Pushed Forward.
The official British statement today is as follows:

"At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon in Delville Wood and Longueval we regained a little more ground. The struggle in these areas still continues.

"North of our Longueval-Bazentin position we this morning pushed forward our line, capturing some prisoners and a gun.

"East of the Leipsic redoubt our bombing parties made a substantial advance last night.

"Elsewhere in the main battle area there has been only artillery fire since the last report and no alterations in the positions already reported.

"A captured diary belonging to a German commanding officer shows that in the fighting from July 1 to July 6 a Bavarian reserve regiment which was opposed to us at Montauban suffered 300 casualties out of a total strength of 2,000 men.

"Another document shows that one battalion of the 150th Regiment lost 360 men out of 1,100, while the other two battalions of that regiment each lost more than half their effective strength.

"Yesterday evening, south of Arm-enieres, we carried out some important raids on a front of two miles in which Australian troops took part. About 160
German prisoners were captured."

The report from Gen. Haig, the British commander, last night said:

"South of Delville Wood this afternoon we dispersed with our fire a large body of Germans massing to attack the Waterlot farm from the direction of Oullemont."

Operations in Galicia are being resolutely affected by the overflow of the River Danube, which is flooding large areas.

The statement says:

"On July 17, 17 enemy aeroplanes made raids on the station at Zambrin, northwest of Basovitch. Twenty-seven men were thrown upon the hospital lazarette. Three persons on the Ozal staff were killed and five other injured. Of the patients in the hospital, 10 were killed and 25 wounded.

"In the region of the Stokhod the enemy tried to advance near the villages of Outall and Arsonovitch, but without result.

"An advance of the enemy in the region of Zvinatich-Ellisarov, southeast of Gorochav, was repulsed by us.

"The overflow of the Danube continues. Villages situated in the neighborhood have been flooded through rivers overflowing their banks. The slopes of the heights are so slippery that it is almost impossible to climb them. At many points bridges have been washed away."

The official statement dealing with operations in the Caucasus says:

"On the front in the region of Daglik we have driven the Turks from positions which had been previously prepared by them. During the 15th of July we continued our advance. West of Balurt, Siberian Cossacks, during a counter attack, captured or landed many Turks. They also took a few hundred prisoners."

"On July 18 we occupied the town of Kugi, an important junction of roads from Erzerum, Lhaspuli and Khindfina."

"In the direction of Mosul (northeast of Bagdad) on the night of July 17 the Turks commenced an advance with great forces near Rawanduz. Our detachment has retreated to new positions."

Turks Report Italian Defeat in Tripoli.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 20.—An official communication issued by the Turkish War Office says:

"Reports of successful military observations against the Italians in Tripoli and against the British in Western Egypt prove that Buri Bey Pasha, who is directing the operations of the Ottoman volunteers in those regions, is still alive and has splendidly fulfilled his task."

"During his last engagement with the Italians in the neighborhood of Misratah (on the Mediterranean in Tripoli) which terminated in the defeat of the Italians, he captured 200 officers and 800 soldiers and 24 guns. Misratah and Djelid are in the hands of the volunteers. Between both places and the coast no Italians remain."

"In Western Egypt our volunteers have engaged in successful fighting, but no details are yet available."

CAFE PROPRIETOR KNOCKS MAN DOWN—FRACTURES HIS SKULL.

Policeman Sees One of Three First Hit Man Arrested—Had Been Ordered From Place.

William Walsh, proprietor of a cafe at Newstadt and Finney avenues, was arrested at 12:30 o'clock this morning, after he had knocked a man down in front of his place. The man was unconscious, but was taken to the city hospital as Daniel A. Culhane, 25 years old, an elevator conductor, of 234 Adams street. Surgeons said that his skull was fractured.

A patrolman was standing across the street from the cafe when he saw three men leave the place, followed to the sidewalk one of the men turned to Walsh and said, "If I had a cannon I'd get you." He then struck Walsh, the policeman said.

The policeman ran across the street, but before he reached the men Walsh had knocked the other down.

One of Culhane's companions fled. The other was arrested, but later released. He said that he was Charles Grodzky, 35 years old, of 1710 Carr street.

Walsh told the police that the men had become quarrelsome in the cafe and that he had ordered them out.

JUSTICE ORDERED INTO COURT

Circuit Judge Withrow issued an order today against Justice of the Peace Slater, requiring him to show cause Aug. 4 why he has not decided the case of the Quaker City Rubber Co. against Frank Schneider, who was tried May 21 in Slater's court and taken $1,495 in damages.

The action was taken on a motion filed by C. A. Daniel of the rubber company, who says in his petition that under the law a Justice of the Peace must render a judgment within three days in a case that has been taken under advisement, but that Slater, in spite of repeated requests, has refused to give his decision. The excuse given by Slater is that he has been too busy.

The case in the Justice court involved the price of some automobile tires.

Present Allied Offensive Likened to Grant's in 1864

Attrition at Work on All Fronts

By Frank H. Simonds.

The first week of the last month of the second year of the great war saw Germany on the defensive on all fronts, a circumstance new in the present conflict, and in view of the allied commentaries, marking the development of the first step in a general concentric attack upon the Austro-German alliance.

Go back to the Civil War and there is a parallel that comes easily to mind. From 1861 to 1863, from first Bull Run until the third day of Gettysburg had ended, the Confederacy fought for a victory by successive offensives; the North, with greater numbers, resources, with command of the sea, totally failed to coordinate the movements of its great armies and to obtain the mastery that permitted it to control the offensive.

In 1864, however, Grant had come East with one clear conception. He purposed to attack on all fronts and simultaneously there was to be equal pressure on all parts, continuing casualties, never ending wastage in men and resources until attrition, if nothing else, would bring the South to the point of collapse. Now, in 1916, at the close of the second year of the present war, we have the central Powers at last on the defensive, attacked on the east by the Russians, in the south by the Italians and on the west by Anglo-French armies.

Borrowed Grant's War Policy.

So far, and only so far, the parallel is plain. We do not know, we cannot even guess, that the central Powers will be crushed as was the South. What we can see is that the foe of the central Powers have borrowed the strategy—or perhaps better, the war policy—of Grant; they are just beginning to apply it. We are in the very first days of the application and nothing of real decisive value has yet occurred.

View War as a Whole.

Now, as always, this war must be viewed as a whole, not from the point of view of the trench lines in Artois or Flanders. Remember that the whole Confederacy had practically collapsed before Lee's army was in turn destroyed, and the meaning of the events may be grasped. Russia, France and Britain are now engaged in killing Germans and Austrians, and in the killing of Austrians Italy is helping. The four allied Powers have for the first time obtained the offensive—they are all attacking—their issues are pooled. A German reverse, an Austrian collapse, wherever it may occur, will be actually of the same value in the larger game that is afoot.

The war may be won for the allies in the east quite as completely as in the west. Germany and Austria may be exhausted by Russian efforts along the Niemen, the Bug and the Dniester, quite as satisfactorily as by the French and British on the Somme and the Meuse. The great problem now is whether Germany, with Austria, can stand the next four months of steady pounding—a pounding just beginning in the west.

Before the present offensive on the Western front, the German front south of Arras, cut far into the allied line in a deep salient between Albert and Arras, crossing the Albert-Arras section of the Paris-Duquerque Railroad. Despite their efforts the British have not succeeded in blunting the point of this salient, although they have narrowed the neck of the salient a little by taking Fricourt. But the French moving on both banks of the Somme have driven a salient of their own for several miles outward. This makes the original German salient to the north far more pronounced and far

EFFORT TO BE MADE TO FIND SUBNORMAL MINDS IN CHICAGO

Rockefeller Institute to Conduct Survey, Following Deaths of 6 Through Negro's Fanaticism.

CHICAGO, July 20.—A survey of Cook County, with regard to subnormal mind conditions, will be undertaken, beginning Aug. 1. This development was announced today and came as an aftermath to the tragedy of Tuesday, in which Henry P. McIntyre, negro fanatic, was responsible for the deaths of six persons, including himself.

The survey is to be conducted by the Rockefeller Institute and following it legislation to meet conditions will be drafted and suggested to the Illinois Legislature for passage.

It is stated that the proposed action is a step toward the elimination from society of half-wits, morons and subnormal persons.

Fourth Baron of Newborough Dies.

LONDON, July 20.—William Charles Wynn, fourth Baron Newborough, died last night at his London residence. He was born in 1873. In 1900 he married Grace, daughter of Colonel H. M. Carr of Kentucky.

If they can get to Le Cateau they will cut the other, that from St. Quentin to Brussels and to Germany by Liege. If the British can do this in a whole summer it will be a sufficient achievement. The British will be in the main liberated. If the British fail to do this they will fail to accomplish what is expected of them and what they expect of themselves. It is doubtless true that the Germans have massed their forces against the British, for the British menace is deadly, the French comparatively slight. It is plain that the British progress so far has been insignificant, but we are just at the beginning and great casualty lists and count on great stocks of ammunition.

The unforeseen and unforeseeable causes which have raised the rate of expenditure, said the Chancellor, were mainly the rate at which American securities had been sold to the Government for the purpose of regulating American exchange, and the rate at which the French had made to allies and dominions of Great Britain were drawn upon.

BURGLAR SCARE LEADS TO MISTAKES ALL AROUND

Police Go to the Wrong House and Man Who Sent in Alarm Finds He Hid the Wrong House.

C. B. Winer of 694 North Market street at 4 a. m. today telephoned the police that burglars were trying to enter the flat upstairs. A squad of policemen, sent from the Page Boulevard Station, misunderstood the number and went to 694A North Market street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Sanders, who were married six months ago and who had just moved into the flat. Sanders was indignant and said there was no trouble there.

The police finally traced the call to Winer's home. Winer told them it was all a mistake and that the noise he heard was the man upstairs coming home. The man on the second floor indignantly denied this and said he had been home all night. The policemen returned to the station.

4TH MISSOURI'S FARM BOY UNITS ARE A HARDY LOT

Companies Made Up of Corn-Fed Members From North Part of State.

IMPROVING EVERY DAY

They Can Hold Their Own With the City Men in the First Regiment.

By CLAIR KENAMORE
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

LAREDO, Tex., July 20.—For human interest and the joy of life in the Missouri militia, give me the Fourth Regiment of the National Guard. It's a corn-fed outfit from the north part of the State, the strongest numerically of the Missouri regiments here and the headquarters has the best mess and enjoys it the most.

Col. John D. McNeely of St. Joseph, who commands this regiment, has been in the regiment 22 or 23 years. He was a Captain in the Spanish-American War. Maj. Clay C. McDonald has a lengthier service, having 27 years to his credit. He started in the ranks, rose to Colonel and now is at the head of his battalion, watching the boys drift along. One of these, First Lieut. Donald M. McDonald of the staff is his son. The Lieutenant-Colonel, Joseph L. Hanley of Kansas City, is the Adjutant of the brigade. He is one of the best posted men in the brigade on military affairs and machinery and his knowledge has been of great service to Gen. Clark. First Lieut. Earp of this regiment also is on the General's staff.

Rough Rider in Regiment.
The Fourth Regiment has one company from Caruthersville which formerly was in the famous Sixth Missouri, since mustered out. This company, commanded by Capt. Edward Reeves, a former rough rider, is the only Fourth Regiment company which does not come from north of the Missouri River. The companies are scattered across the north part of the State, coming from Tarkio, Kirksville, Trenton, Hannibal, Columbia, Bethany, Carrollton, Chillicothe, Weston, Mound City, Moberly, Louisiana, while the machine gun company comes from Kansas City, the home of the Third Regiment.

There is a great deal of difference between a regiment such as this, recruited in the country towns, and a regiment like the First, from the city. The enlisted men of the Fourth are probably taller and heavier than the city men, but whether they will excel in endurance and other soldierly qualities is a question only tests will show.

The men are of different strains of descent, the city regiments, for instance, showing a large percentage of men of Teutonic extraction, and nobody will deny in these days that those countries produce good soldiers.

Fourth Is Pro-Ally.
The Fourth is, I fear, pro-Ally. The roster of officers is almost equally divided between the Scotch, Irish and English, all, however, Americanized by generations of American breeding.

The First Regiment I would characterize as typically and thoroughly St. Louisian. The Fourth Regiment is even more typically Missourian. Its enlisted men, scattered over the State, know their way about a gun and probably could find direction in a forest better than they could through a city. They are the kind of men who like to think of as being good soldiers potentially.

In a tournament I suspect the First would take all the prizes, but in an action I believe there would be as many of the enemy's dead in front of the Fourth's line as the First's.

The officers of the First probably would be able to take their men into action with more smoothness, but not with greater sureness, and I doubt if they could withdraw them from a stricken field in better order than could the Fourth.

Typhoid Serum Used.
I watched today the administration of the third injection of anti-typhoid serum to the men of the Fourth. Capt. Godfrey C. Cuppage, a physician of Moberly, was in charge of the proceedings. He is a large man with a Rooseveltian reservoir of energy. The companies line up, shirts removed, the coats thrown over their shoulders as they passed into the hospital tent, an orderly dabbed each arm with iodine. The doctors without a moment's delay sank the needles into arms and squirted 25 drops of the toxin.

The men joked all the while, although each one knew the injection meant a day's fever, the pain of the needle and the burning aftermath. They took the injection in the right arm. Each left arm showed the recent vaccination against smallpox. Even the internal arrangements for preparedness to be soldiers are complicated nowadays.

"It is just a month since we were called," said Col. McNeely, "and I am well in the bounds of saying that we are now in better shape in every way than we were after three months at the time of the Spanish War. My men are better trained, everything has worked better for them, and this regiment is near to being soldiers right now."

Columbia August Records Sale

Songs on the Top Wave of Popularity

THRILLING patriotic ensembles like "Young America—We're Strong For You" and "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall"; hits that are hits, like Al Jolson's singing of "I Sent My Wife to the Thousand Isles"; and comic and sentimental song-successes like "I've Got a Sweet Tooth Bothering Me" from Lew Fields' latest show "Step This Way" and "Songs We Used to Sing in Dixieland," a Remick song-gem that is sweeping the country. Music of a very different sort is Casals' marvelous handling of the 'cello in Saint-Saens' "Allegro Appassionato" and Haydn's "Minuet in C Major."

Also in the August List
Kathleen Parlow's inspired playing of two brilliant violin compositions by Kreisler and Svendsen, Graveure's inspired rendering of two beautiful old-time hymns and Rother's great basso in the immortal anthem "La Marseillaise," rank quite as high in artistic interest. As examples of another side of the month's list, here are

Four Popular Records You Should Hear
A 2025 HURRY BACK TO MY BAMBOO SHACK. 10 inch. 75c. Henry Burr, Tenor.
A 2015 Gwine to Run All Night. H.C. Brown, baritone, Banjo and orch. acc. 10 inch. 75c.
A 1992 SWEET IS TIPPERARY. 10 inch. 75c. Mary O'Rourke, Soprano.
A 2019 MY GRANDFATHER'S GIRL. 10 inch. 75c. Campbell and Burr, Tenor Duet.

Music of Universal Interest
Varied and charming is the balance of the list: eight rhythmic dances; the Tartar Ballet from "Prince Igor," (a veritable orchestral triumph); violin gems, banjo solos, instrumental trios; vocal choruses, quartets and solos; novelties on the harp, gypsy cimbalom and Hawaiian guitar. Two Shakespearean orations add further novelty to this extensive and entertaining list—a list that you'll enjoy hearing at your dealer's.

SEEBERT G. JONES SAYS HE WANTS NO HELP FROM I. V. L.

Candidate for Circuit Attorney
Says He Authorized No Contribution to League.

Seebert G. Jones, former Circuit Attorney, and a candidate for the Republican nomination for the same office at the coming primary, told a Post-Dispatch reporter today that he has written a letter to Henry W. Kolkschneider, president of the Taxpayers' Protective Federation, in which he repudiates any endorsement of his candidacy that may be made by the secret Independent Voters' League.

Jones said he was asked by Kolkschneider for a statement concerning his connection, if any, with the I. V. L.

and an expression from him to clear up rumors that a contribution to the I. V. L. by Jephtha D. Howe, former Republican boss, and a brother-in-law of Jones.

Jones said: "In my letter I said that I have never had any dealings with the Independent Voters' League or any of its representatives. I am opposed to the principle of bringing religious ill-feeling into politics and I have not sought, nor do I want, the endorsement of the Independent Voters' League."

"Nobody was ever authorized by me to make any contribution for me to the I. V. L., and if any such contribution was made it was without my knowledge or consent. However, I don't believe any such contribution was ever made for me."

Howe Denies Contribution.

Rumor has had it for several weeks that a contribution to the I. V. L. was made by Howe for Jones and Judge Lamm, candidate for Governor. Lamm has already made a statement repudiating the endorsement of his candidacy by the I. V. L.

Howe denies that he made any contribution to the I. V. L. to further the candidacy of any one.

Kolkschneider said he expected to receive similar letters of repudiation of the I. V. L. endorsement from several candidates on the local tickets.

The campaign of repudiation of the secret league's endorsements by the candidates was caused by the Post-Dispatch's exposure of the activities of the anti-Catholic "dark lantern" organization in soliciting contributions from candidates, and the belief by them that candidates preferred by the league are doomed to defeat at the primary.

Recently Kolkschneider indicated that the Taxpayers' Federation, which has a membership of more than 20,000, would oppose all candidates on all tickets who are endorsed by the I. V. L. and fail to repudiate such endorsements. Of the total membership of the Taxpayers' Federation 6000 are business houses.

Kolkschneider said that not only his organization would oppose the candidates preferred by the I. V. L., but that a concerted effort by a large number of civic organizations would be made to kill off the secret organization at the coming primary.

A ballot of the Independent Voters' League for distribution only in Buchanan County, with endorsements of candidates for county offices on both tickets, has been obtained by the Post-Dispatch. The ballot, except for the additional endorsements of county candidates, is identical with that prepared by the secret league for circulation all over the State.

Branch at St. Joseph.

The ballot shows that the I. V. L. is maintaining a branch organization in Buchanan County, and that its activities, like those of the parent body, are of the "dark-lantern" variety. Its only known headquarters is P. O. Box 513, South St. Joseph.

The ballots to be distributed in Buchanan are being printed in St. Louis. In addition to the endorsements of candidates on the State tickets, the ballot carries endorsements of candidates for the State Legislature, County Judge, Public Administrator, Sheriff, Prosecuting Attorney, Assessor, County Treasurer, County Surveyor, Coroner and Constable.

The county is a Democratic stronghold and a majority of the candidates of the Democratic party are marked "Romanist" or "Pro-Romanist" on the league's ballots. The voters are advised by the league to vote against Miss Mary A. Williams, the only candidate on either ticket for the office of Public Administrator, because she is a Catholic.

RATE JUDGMENT UPHELD

United States Court of Appeals Sustains Award of Lumber Firm.

A decision sustaining the judgment of the United States District Court in awarding to the C. E. Ferguson Lumber Co. of Little Rock, Ark., $117.17 for excessive freight rates charged by the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railroad, plus the interest on the money in dispute, was handed down by the United States Court of Appeals yesterday. The decision of the District Court, however, was reversed in assessing the railroad $600 for attorney's fees, the decision stating that the charge was excessive. The case was tried at Little Rock, Ark.

FIVE POLICEMEN ARE INJURED

Spring in Their Auto Breaks When They Answer Hurry Call in Kansas City, Kan.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 20.—Five policemen, answering a hurry call in Kansas City Kan., early today were injured, two of them seriously, it is believed, when a front spring of their automobile, running at high speed, collapsed.

Capt. Ira Bonwell, a veteran of the force, and Detective Nathan A. Thompson are not expected to recover from fractured bones and others injuries. The others likely will survive.

Two Swedish Aviators Killed.

STOCKHOLM, July 20.—Two Swedish Flight Lieutenants, Mannstrom and Krues, were killed yesterday. Their machine fell from a height of 300 feet.

D. R. FRANCIS TELLS THE RUSSIANS ALL ABOUT ST. LOUIS

Ambassador Also Mentions the World's Fair in a Newspaper Interview.

NEW YORK, July 20.—David R. Francis, Ambassador of the United States to Russia, has been interviewed by Novoye Vremya of Petrograd, leading newspaper of the Russian empire. Copies of the newspaper containing the Ambassador's interview have been received in New York.

The interviewer who talked with Ambassador Francis evidently knew as little of our political system and of St. Louis as some untraveled Americans know of Russia and Russian cities. The interview was given June 17, just after the adjournment of the Democratic national convention at St. Louis, and only excerpts of the platform had been printed in the Russian newspapers.

The Ambassador described with some detail the wonderful enthusiasm and unanimity of the convention, and when the election will be held and the next President inaugurated.

Predicts President Re-Election.

"Will President Wilson be re-elected?" the Russian interviewer asked.

"Yes," said Ambassador Francis. "I think there is no doubt about the re-election of President Wilson. His administration has been a successful one in domestic affairs, as well as in foreign affairs."

That there was unusual interest in the platform declarations of the Democratic party, is shown by the next question, which was: "Have you seen the platform or the declaration of principles?"

"No," said the Ambassador, "not all of its provisions. The section, however, which has been printed in Petrograd is significant and very important. It unequivocally condemns the formation of associations in America for the purpose of promoting or aiding any foreign country when engaged in war, concerning which the Government has taken a neutral position."

The Ambassador then proceeded to enlighten the interviewer on what has been going on in America.

"American citizens," he continued, "of German ancestry or nationality have been outspoken and active in America in expressing sympathy with the Fatherland. The campaign will be very strenuous and has already begun. Mr. Hughes, the Republican candidate, has resigned from the Supreme bench, of which he has been a member for eight years. He is an able man, but has made no expressions concerning the European war. Therefore his views on that question are unknown."

The next question was one that the Ambassador had been waiting for. Those who know the Ambassador intimately say that he sometimes suggests questions interviewers, and then answers them himself. However that may have been, the interviewer asked:

"Could you tell us something about St. Louis?"

Grows Eloquent About St. Louis.

Could the Ambassador tell Russia something about St. Louis. He certainly could. It is quite probable that the interviewer didn't get all that Ambassador Francis said about St. Louis, for everybody knows that Francis is very eloquent on the subject of St. Louis, especially when he is in Europe, and has visions of Fourth and Olive streets continually before him. Here is what he said in answer to the question:

"St. Louis is on the great Mississippi River and is the metropolis of the Mississippi Valley, the most productive section of our country, if not of the world. The city has a population of about 1,000,000. It was founded by a Frenchman named Pierre Laclède, in 1764, after journeying up the river from the Gulf of Mexico, a distance of about 1,000 miles. It is almost the geographical center of the United States and also the center of population of our country."

St. Louis is a very large manufacturing and distributing point, with ample banking facilities, and is approached by 23 railroads running through every section of the very fertile country surrounding the city. It has cheap fuel in abundance, as there are immense deposits of coal within twenty miles, or 30 yards. It has an inexhaustible supply of pure water, which is sold to manufacturers at very low rates.

"St. Louis is also famed for its excellent public schools. Its school buildings have been used as models by other cities in America and elsewhere. It is also a beautiful residential city. Almost every residence has a yard surrounding it and most of the residences are owned by those who occupy them."

Reverts to the World's Fair.

"In 1904 St. Louis had the greatest international exposition, or exhibition, ever held. It was participated in by all European countries except Russia, which first accepted the invitation and had begun to erect its buildings on the grounds and had shipped its exhibits, when the Japanese war began and Russia withdrew from participation and cabled the management, of which I was the president, that it could not make an exhibit of its products because the money appropriated therefor had been diverted to the use of the Russian Red Cross in the Japanese war."

"There were many exhibits, however, of Russia's highly manufactured products and of her superb works of art."

Want Border Militia Recalled.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Immediate recall of national guardsmen from the border and the repeal of the new law federalizing state militia, were urged in a statement issued last night by the Merchants' Association of New York, committee reported to the association in favor of increasing the regular army to 500,000 men.

Not only delicious — but there's "life" in

Grape-Nuts

Try this experiment yourself. Take some Grape-Nuts direct from the package. Hold the granules in the palm of your hand under sunlight or an electric bulb. You will notice tiny shining particles of light on the granules—the starch of the grains transformed.

Then do the same with some other prepared food—any other prepared food. You don't see these glistening particles.

"There's a Reason"

The wonderful taste—the wonderful nourishment in this great food is due to the fact that in addition to the sweetness of the whole wheat is combined the delicate flavor and food value of malted barley.

This gives Grape-Nuts two great factors that no mere wheat food can possess. The delicious zest of malted barley imparts a savor that is "universally" liked; and beyond that, the barley contains a digestive (not in wheat) which, with long baking, transforms the starch of these full grains into a form of sugar which shows on the golden-brown granules.

If you haven't tried Grape-Nuts food you have a treat in store. It not only appeals to the appetite but is a powerful builder for body and brain.

GOVERNMENT MEDIATION SOUGHT

President Asked to Intervene in New York Cloakmakers' Strike.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—President Wilson today received a request from Harry Morganthau, former Ambassador in Turkey; Cleveland H. Dodge, A. B. Hays and several other New York men asking that the Government intervene in the cloakmakers' strike which has been in progress in New York City for 12 weeks.

The petition was made on the ground that the strike threatened the supply of women's clothing of the whole nation. The President referred the petition to the Department of Labor and Commerce, with the request that immediate action be taken. The Bureau of Conciliation probably will undertake negotiations for settlement of the strike.

AUTO DRIVEN BY POLICE CLERK HITS AND KILLS MAN

John Beyers Run Down at Grand Avenue and Forest Park Boulevard.

An automobile driven by Otto Frelich, a clerk in the Bureau of Identification at police headquarters, ran down and killed John Beyers, 21 years old, of 4170 Polson avenue at Grand avenue and Forest Park boulevard last night.

The car belonged to Alexander Krawll, a junk dealer, of 1288 North Sixteenth street, who had loaned it to Frelich. With Frelich at the time of the accident was Patrolman John F. Beccard, another attaché of the Bureau of Identification, and Joseph Krawll and wife of 1438 North Eleventh street.

Beyers was run down as he was crossing the street. Fred Duncker of 4132 Polson avenue, who was with Beyers, told the police he saw Beyers apparently trying to dodge the automobile. Frelich was arrested and released on a common law bond.

HEIRESS ACCUSED OF BUYING WINE FOR MEN GUESTS

Conduct Recounted in Application for a Conservator for Cape Cod Young Woman.

CHARGES DENIED BY HER
Disputes That She Met Light-house Man at 3 A. M. or Tried to Elope With Portuguese.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
HARTFORD, Conn., July 20.—Miss Marion Pomeroy Smith, 22 years old, the Cape Cod heiress, on the witness stand in the Probate Court, yesterday put up a spirited fight against the efforts of Charles C. Paine of Barnstable County, Mass., to have himself appointed conservator of her Connecticut estate, as he has already had himself appointed conservator of her Massachusetts property. Paine was originally her guardian.

The application for the appointment of conservator in Massachusetts, in which Paine was joined by the girl's grandmother, was filed on the grounds of "debauchery and insanity."

In the present proceedings it is sought to show Miss Smith was more than heedless—that she was infatuated with one man because of his temper, another for his blue eyes and so on. It was alleged that she was given to entertaining her favorites and footing big wine and food bills.

Allenists Vouch for Her.
Miss Smith, of whom several well-known alienists have asserted that, far from being mentally affected, she is unusually bright and decidedly intellectual, is also very pretty. For the emotional display she gave during six hours on the stand, the stage might claim her. There were times of laughter and of tears, but never hesitancy, confusion or incoherence in any replies.

The charges of mental incompetency that led her to wander—so that even married men of Cape Cod were endangered—she indignantly denied, and said her Massachusetts conservator once seriously offended her in the privacy of his office.

She said she had been out with Paine's wife and purchased a pair of fashionable, very high topped shoes. That day she went to Paine's office, she said, for an allowance to meet weekly bills. She testified Paine showed such a keen interest in her new shoes, even putting out a hand to touch them, that she became alarmed.

The witness leaped to her feet and described her indignation.

"I tried to slap his face," she said, "but he was so quick for me. He then laughed. Then I left his office and I have not been there since. Nor have I spoken to him."

"The next day he joined with my grandmother in filing an application to have himself appointed guardian on the grounds of debauchery and insanity."

"My grandmother," added Miss Smith in lower tones, "was addicted to an excessive use of liquor, poor dear. I tried to hide it until she accused me of running around with all the married men in Cape Cod. But when she joined Mr. Paine I was forced to defend myself and tell about it."

Denies Friendships With Men.
Miss Smith's counsel, William A. Morse, who was one of the lawyers for the Rev. Clarence Richeson, the murderer, asked Miss Smith if she had ever been unduly friendly with Maurice Paine, a writer and fishing expert, named in the case. Her voice rang out in denial.

Had she tried to elope with the physician of Hyannis village? Or with the lighthouse keeper whom her grandmother alleged she met on the beach one morning at 3 o'clock? Or with Jesse, the Portuguese man of all work, as charged?

To these questions the girl made the same reply.

"Absurd! Impossible. I never thought of such a thing!"

Miss Smith's property in this city consists of a valuable residential site in Washington street, near the home of United States Senator Morgan G. Buckley.

MOORE'S MILLIONS BUILT ON SAVINGS OF HIS COACHMAN

Chicagoan, After Losing First Fortune, Got $2000 Start From Employee.

CHICAGO, July 20.—When the funeral of James Hobart Moore, multimillionaire, was held at Lake Geneva yesterday one of the sincerest mourners probably was William Beattie, called the richest coachman in the world, who has seen nearly 25 years' service in the Moore household. One kind act by Beattie is said to have aided Moore in the accumulation of the second fortune of upwards of $50,000,000.

Moore's first fortune was taken from him overnight as a result of his Diamond Match operations.

"I was worth less than nothing," Moore said, when "Beattie came to me. He had been to the bank and drawn out every cent he had saved—$200. 'Take it,' he said, 'I got it from you, and you are welcome to keep it as long as you want it.'"

Moore used the money for minor transactions which brought him great profits and re-established his credit. Then came the organization of the American Tin Plate Co., in which he was the prime mover; the National Steel, the American Steel Hoop and other steel companies, with a combined capitalization of $187,000,000, which were absorbed by the United States Steel Corporation.

Moore never forgot the service of Beattie. He paid back the $200 many times over and placed Beattie in the way of investments which netted him more than $150,000.

A Message To Thin Weak Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 Pounds of Solid, Healthy Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently but firmly stimulating the functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, thin person's body like a dry sponge—sage and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food.

The famous flesh-building agent that has been so widely sold in America in recent years. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and see if your flesh does not quickly fill out and roll of firm, healthy flesh form over your body, covering each bone, angle and projecting point. Wolff-Wilke's Drug Co., John-son-Enders-Paulley Co.'s Stores, West-ber Drug Co., Judge & Deigh's Stores and other good druggists have Sargol or can get it from their wholesalers, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the results. It is a food, and as stated on the guarantee in each large Sargol box, it is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Sargol—Sargol is recommended only in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported. Care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

As a physician, however, in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I admit that I cannot see the value of Sargol as an infallible and irritating laxative with drugs instead of getting rid of the cause of the trouble. Undoubtedly, a little Sargol would do some good, but I am not sure that it is the best remedy for the case. I am not a doctor, but I am a man, and I am sure that I am not wrong.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.
"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to indigestion; therefore, stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Undoubtedly, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve-tissue. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well-fed body."

"For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to abstain from their diet all starch, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on given products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of Sargol tablet, made in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly."

I know of nothing better than Sargol for the relief of indigestion, and I am sure that it is the best remedy for the case. I am not a doctor, but I am a man, and I am sure that I am not wrong.

New, Positive Treatment to Remove Hair or Fuzz

(Beauty Notes)
Women are fast learning the value of the use of depilatory for the hair on the face, neck or arms. A depilatory is made of a chemical which is mixed with water and spread on the hairy surface. The hair is then washed off, and the skin washed and every bit of hair has disappeared. No failure will result if you are careful to use genuine depilatory.

Heirs Will Submit Document Made in 1914 in Which University Is Not Mentioned.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, July 20.—The will of Amos F. Eno, dated June 18, 1915, which left about $4,000,000 of his $15,000,000 estate to Columbia University, taking that much away from his next of kin, was broken by a jury in the Surrogate's Court yesterday. John B. Stanchfield, counsel for the contestants, told the Court that, although his clients were in no way bound to do so, they would pay all the charitable and educational bequests, amounting to $1,000,000.

It was also announced that an earlier will, dated Jan. 8, 1914, will be pressed for probate provided the verdict on the 1915 will is upheld by the Court of Appeals.

This provides, among other things, for one educational bequest of $2,000,000 and distributes the $4,000,000 residuary estate, bequeathed in the contested will to Columbia, to Henry C. Eno and Mary A. Finchot, brother and sister, both of whom are dead. Under the law their shares will descend to their children, all of whom were contestants.

Private Papers Burned. The contest has attracted widespread attention, partly because of the size of the estate and partly because certain of Eno's private papers were burned a day or so after the millionaire died. The burning of these papers was made a strong point in the Surrogate's charge to the jury.

The contestants were William P. Eno, a brother; Mrs. Antoinette Eno Wood, sister; Prof. Henry Lane Eno, Amos R. E. Finchot, Clifford Finchot, nephews; Lady Antoinette Johnston, Mrs. Florence C. Graves and Miss Mary P. Eno, nieces, and several more distant relatives.

The proponents were the executors, Lucius H. Beers and William Mitchell, Columbia, and five institutions, four of which received $250,000 each. These were the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the American Museum of Natural History, the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, and New York University.

The other proponent was the New York Public Library, which received $50,000 and Eno's collection of books and prints.

The contestants brought their action on the allegations that Eno had been subjected to undue influence by L. H. Beers, who had been his personal counsel for years, and others; that he lacked testamentary capacity when he executed the will. The jury found that he was of unsound mind when he signed the instrument. The charge of undue influence was ruled out by the Surrogate.

How the Wills Differ. Here is what the principal heirs would have received under the broken 1915 will and what they will receive under the 1914 will:

BENEFICIARIES.	1915	1914
Columbia U.	$4,000,000	$300,000
Prof. Henry L. Eno.	2,600,000	2,000,000
Society of Machinery	1,800,000	2,000,000
and Trademans	1,500,000	1,000,000
Amos R. Eno	1,000,000	250,000
Amos R. Finchot	1,000,000	250,000
Gifford Finchot	1,000,000	250,000
Lady Antoinette Johnston	1,000,000	250,000
stone	1,000,000	250,000
W. P. Eno	600,000	300,000
Mary P. Eno	300,000	250,000
Florence C. Graves	300,000	250,000
Antoinette E. Wood	300,000	250,000

Henry C. Eno, a brother, and Mary A. Finchot, under the 1914 will, received $600,000 and one-half of the residuary estate. Both died before the 1915 will was drawn. Hence, under the 1914 will their shares will descend to their children, Amos P. and Gifford Finchot.

Lady Johnston and Prof. Henry Lane Eno. W. P. Eno is a brother of the testator and Antoinette E. Wood a sister. The other persons are nephews and nieces.

At the outset it was proved that the day Eno died, Beers, although he had not qualified as an executor, entered the Eno home, 32 Fifth avenue, and took charge. The same day John E. Mers, long a clerk in the new office of Lord, Day & Lord, with which Beers was connected, arrived at Beers' command.

A day or two later the heirs found that Mers had ordered Svante Johnson, the handy man, to burn several bushels of the decedent's papers in the furnace. The relatives alleged that these papers might have contained a later will or documents which would have aided them in establishing their charge of undue influence.

Of this act by Mers, Surrogate Cochran said to the jury in his charge: "The evidence relating to this act of Mers is to be sifted and examined by you. The law imposed a duty upon the executors named in the will to take charge of the papers of a deceased person and to preserve the same. The law looks with disapproval upon the destruction, before the probate of a will, of any papers, documents or articles belonging to the decedent and the law requires a satisfactory explanation of any such destruction."

Wanted Act Explained. During the trial the Surrogate said from the bench that he believed it incumbent upon Beers to explain the act of Mers, if he could explain it, but there was no response. Mers testified the papers that were destroyed were of no consequence, but some saved by Amos P. E. Finchot, who found them in a garbage can, proved otherwise.

The heirs made it plain that they were contesting the will merely because they did not represent Eno's wishes. Why he gave so large a share of his estate to an institution he detested, and frequently declared he had no use for was beyond their understanding. This was driven home time and again.

There are, perhaps, over 800 brands of cigarettes sold in this country today. But not one of them does what Chesterfields do, for Chesterfields satisfy—and yet they're mild!

This truly unique cigarette has all of that refreshing taste-delicacy which any good cigarette must have.

IN A LARGE FAMILY IT TAKES A GENIUS TO KEEP TRACK OF HIS OWN TOOTHBRUSH—BY GOLDBERG.

Don't Ever Let Anyone Tell You This as a New One

HERE'S a puzzle.

"Shoot."

"Take away my first letter; take away my second letter; take away all my letters and I am still the same. What am I?"

"The postman!"

What It Said All Right.

As an example of the ability of the juvenile scholar to evolve unexpected meanings, a correspondent of the Spectator relates that the following question was put to a history class: "What misfortune then happened to Bishop Odo?"

The reply came quite readily: "He went blind."

An explanation was demanded and the genius brought up the textbook: "There, sir," triumphantly, "the book says so." The sentence indicated read: "Odo was deprived of his see."

Joe Was Curious

JOE had been working in Baltimore. On the day before Christmas he received his pay and planned to go home to Washington, but first he started out to buy presents for all his family. He did this with more generosity than foresight, and when evening came he found himself at the railway station loaded with bundles, but with no money for his fare to Washington.

Somehow he got through the gate and approached the conductor. He laid the mass before him, and ended with a plea that he might ride to Washington on the platform of the baggage car. The conductor, his heart warmed by the spirit of the season, said, "All right; go ahead."

So Joe climbed on the platform of the car next to the engine. It was a cold night, and it was on a road where the engine takes up water from a track reservoir as it goes along.

When the train reached Washington the conductor saw Joe approaching, covered with ice from head to foot, bundles and all. He came up to the conductor and said: "I sure does thank you, boss, for mule ride. You's very kind to allow mule to ride with me; but there's just one question I wants to ax. Kin you tell me the name ob that rivuh we run through back there?"—Youth's Companion.

Take His Advice.

A MAN with the croup halted a doctor on a street corner.

"Doctor," he said, coughing violently, "what ought a chap to do when he's got the croup?"

"The doctor's eye emitted a steady light at the thought of being bunched out of a free prescription, and he said: "Such a man, my friend, ought to consult a good physician."

"Thanks, doctor," said the sufferer, as he took his leave. "That's what I'll do, then."

Neglected Statement.

ONE evening an angry complainant appeared in a farmer's barn. "Your bull chased me across that field this morning."

"Did he? Well, I'm sorry. Hurt ye much?"

"See here, I've come to tell you that you ought to take that bull out of the field."

"It's my field, likewise my bull."

"I guess you don't know who I am?"

"Well, no, dunno's I do."

"I am the Mayor of Scarborough and President of the Scarborough & Tataville Railroad."

"Be ye?" asked Jim, respectfully.

"Well, why didn't ye tell that to the bull?"—Youth's Companion.

One Way to Avoid Disappointment is Not to Go Fishing.

ONE way to avoid disappointment is not to go fishing.

No Cause for Thanks.

MISS JOY requires the various members of her Sunday school class to tell her the things for which they were thankful. Mabel gave thanks for blue eyes, Dorothy for her wavy hair. Poor little Bill, freckle-faced and red of tresses, sighed when it came his turn.

"Teacher, I don't know for what to be thankful. Seems to me God purty nigh ruin't my looks."

Mike Came Near Losing.

BURLEY MIKE starting up the long ladder with his mud full of brick. His mate, the hodder, "Mike, I buy yes $2 that with me astraddle the hod yes can't make the roof."

"Yer on, Pat, an' aisy money it looks to me."

Mike, tugging away with his double lead, between the seventh and eighth stories, missed a round, and went down half a dozen, but by good navigation stayed his descent and resumed his upward climb, and dumped his mate with the bricks on the top story.

"The $2 is mine, Pat," he pantingly gasped.

"Sure, Mike; but yer remember that time yes slipped—begob, I thought I had yes!"

Innocent Exposure.

MOTHER: Now go kiss nurels good night and let her put you to bed.

Little Helen: Don't want to. She slaps folks that try to kiss her now.

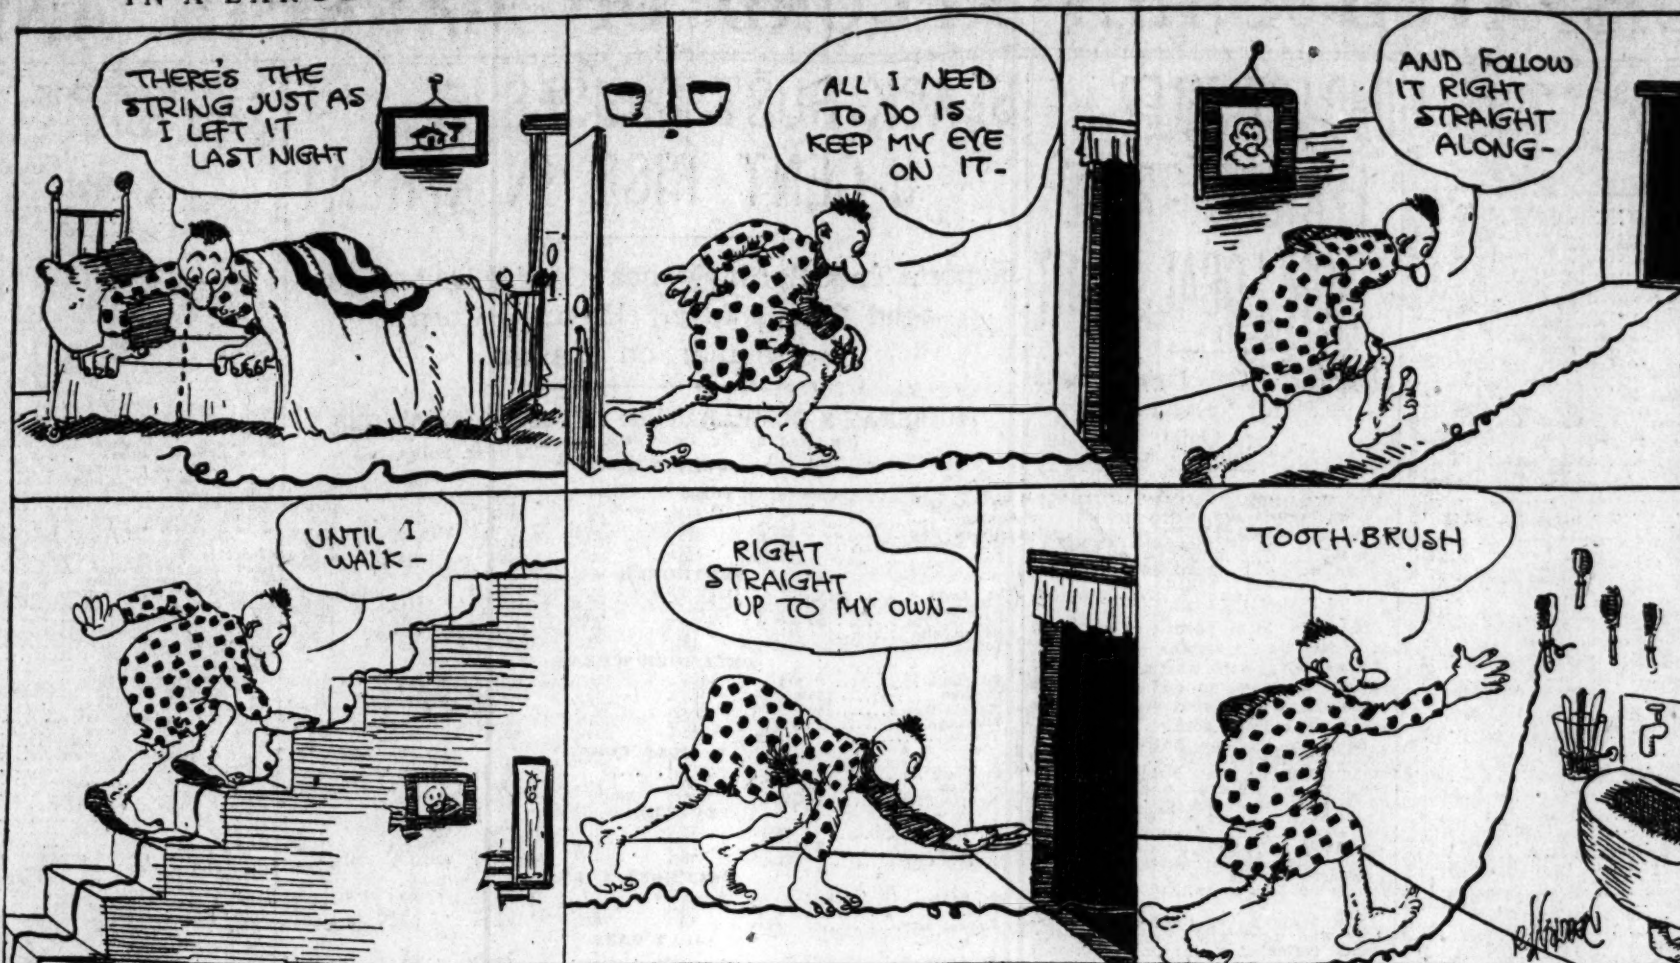

Mother: Why, what a story, Helen!

Helen: Well, you ask papa if she don't.

Growing Up.

YOUR daughter is getting to be quite a big girl, isn't she?"

"Yes; she's big enough now to wear short dresses."

Giving Him Confidence.

IT was his first campaign, his first political speech, even. Although the County Committee had sent him into a rural district to try out his oratorical wings, he was encouraged by the warm welcome of the local committee and the elaborate preparations for the meeting that were evident on all sides. There was even a band that played on the stand in the public square for half an hour before the speech. Finally the great moment arrived. The chairman stepped to the platform rail and addressed the crowd.

"Fellow citizens," he said, "we have with us today a young man who is destined to make his mark in the ranks of our party. He comes to tell us of the burning issues that confront us, and his fame as an orator has preceded him. He will now address you, and when he has finished the band will call you together again."—Youth's Companion.

Applied.

HOW often have I told you not to ask for a second helping of dessert?" said Tommie's mother.

"I was only doin' what they told me to in Sunday school," replied the boy.

"Why, Tommy? What do you mean?"

"Well, the Golden Text today was 'Ask, and you shall receive,' and I'm askin', ain't it?"

Couldn't Escape.

YOU once kept a cook for a whole month, you say?"

"Remarkable. How did you manage?"

"We were cruising on a houseboat and she couldn't swim."

Vain Hope.

I WONDER why Scribbler goes to the theater so often. He always says the show is rotten."

"He submitted a play to a manager 10 years ago, and he goes to see every new play in the hope that somebody has stolen his plot."

Wrap 'Em Together.

LITTLE boy: A penn'orth each of liniment and liquid cement, please.

Chemist: Are they both for the same person, or shall I wrap them up separately?

Little Boy: Well, I dunno; muvver's broke'er teapot, so she wants the cement, but farver wants the liniment. 'E's what muvver broke'er teapot on.

All That's Bought.

ALL that's bought goes to the buyer."

Said a man named Martin Dwyer. Still, as everybody knows, Coal unto the cellar goes.

Out of Date.

WHEN I was a young man of your age, my son, I had to paddle my own canoe."

"I know, father, but that was before motor boats were invented."

Subsequent Detail.

"When you refused him my hand, papa, didn't he get down on his knees?"

"Well, I didn't notice exactly where he alighted."

Don't Do It, Bill; Don't Do It.

DEAR BILL, here's a letter—the first in 19 years. I hope it will find you all right. In work I am always clear up to my ears and that's why few letters I write. I've lately been West to the little old town, the scene of the boyhood we knew, and just for a moment I've set myself down to talk of it, Billy, with you. It isn't the same as it was years ago when we and our gang were its bane. They've put down brick pavements where weeds used to grow. The stores and the homes, once so plain, are changed—they're made modern with paint and the like. The horsecars are things of the past. The auto has knocked out the horse and the bike. It's got them both badly out of classed. The boys aren't the same sort of kids that we knew. They always look clean and wear shoes and swimmers and swipers of melons are few. 'Twould give an old-timer the blues. A new set of people inhabits the town. They're nice, but they're folks we don't know. I've heard that you figured some day you'd run down. Bill, just for your heart's sake, don't go.

Unhappy.

WELL, Bobbie, I suppose you are having a great time these vacation days."

"Naw, I ain't. If I go barefooted maw makes me wash my feet every night before I go to bed, and if I wear shoes and stockin's I might as well be goin' to school."

Behind Them.

FRIEND: What do you call your horse?"

Owner: Bookmaker.

Friend: That's a queer name for a horse. Why do you call him that?"

Owner: Because he follows the racers.

His Hopeless Case.

CLERK: You promised me a raise if I was satisfactory.

Employer: But you are not, sir! No man is who reminds me of a promise!
